Helped me develop my decisionmaking and problem-solving skills.
Expanded my knowledge about the work world before permanent employment.
Helped me develop my written and oral communication skills
Provided a chance to use leadership skills (influence others, develop ideas with others, simulate decisionmaking and action)

This experience has	Strongly Agree	Agree	Neutral	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
Expanded my sensitivity to the ethical implications of the work involved
Made it possible for me to be more confident in new situations
Expanded my sensitivity to the ethical implications of the work involved
Made it possible for me to be more confident in new situations

Allowed me to acquire information and/or use equipment not available at my Institute

In the Institute OJT program, faculty members are expected to be mentors for students. Do you feel that your faculty coordinator served such a function? Why or why not?

The faculty coordinator provided basic guidance during the OJT program, such as monitoring progress and offering general instructions. However, the mentorship was moderate, as most of the learning and problem-solving was done independently. While support was available when required, more regular interaction and detailed feedback could have enhanced the overall learning experience. Nevertheless, the guidance provided helped in successfully completing the training.

How well were you able to accomplish the initial goals, tasks and new skills that were set down in your learning contract? In what ways were you able to take a new direction or expand beyond your contract? Why were some goals not accomplished adequately?

I was able to accomplish most of the initial goals and tasks outlined in my learning contract. I successfully applied concepts such as data cleaning, analysis, and basic machine learning model development in practical projects. I also gained hands-on experience with tools like Python, FastAPI, and Streamlit, which helped me build a strong foundation in real-world applications.

In what areas did you most develop and improve?

During my OJT, I showed significant improvement in data analysis and problem-solving skills. I developed a better understanding of data cleaning, visualization, and building machine learning models. I also improved my technical skills in tools like Python, FastAPI, and Streamlit. Additionally, my ability to work independently, manage time effectively, and approach real-world problems with a practical mindset improved considerably.

What has been the most significant accomplishment or satisfying moment of your OJT?

The most significant accomplishment during my OJT was successfully completing my project and seeing it work as intended. Building a machine learning model and integrating it with an API and user interface was a very satisfying experience, as it allowed me to apply theoretical knowledge in a practical way. It was especially rewarding to see the final output working smoothly, which boosted my confidence and gave me a sense of achievement.

What did you dislike about the OJT?

One aspect I disliked about the OJT was the limited level of continuous mentorship and interaction, which sometimes made it challenging to get immediate guidance on complex topics. Additionally, certain tasks required extensive self-learning without structured support, which could be time-consuming. However, this also helped me become more independent and improve my problem-solving abilities.

Considering your overall experience, how would you rate this OJT? (Circle one).

Satisfactory / Good / Excellent

Give suggestions as to how your OJT experience could have been improved. (Could you have handled added responsibility? Would you have liked more discussions with your professor concerning your OJT? Was closer supervision needed? Was more of an orientation required?)

The OJT experience could have been improved with more regular guidance and discussions with the faculty coordinator, along with a clearer initial orientation. Timely feedback and slightly closer supervision would have enhanced learning. I also feel I could have handled additional responsibilities to gain more practical experience.
